

Piece 1:

Hook:

It was just a few years ago that I had $30 in my bank account and $8,000 worth of credit card debt while working at Chipotle with multiple failed stores.

Superhook:

It's funny looking back now, because I ended up becoming an ecommerce millionaire, and am now running two separate brands with over $3,000,000 in sales each.

Lead:

I think that the reason I kept ending up back at square one with nothing to show for myself actually had nothing to do with ecommerce.

I knew that the business model worked, otherwise I would've given up on it a long time ago.

My real issue was just the way I had been taught to launch rinse and repeat stores that had thin margins, got a revolving door of customers, and totally relied on virality.

Body:

The moment that everything changed was when I started placing an emphasis on retention.

It brought way higher margins, prevented having to restart all the time, and helped create enterprise value.

I'm hosting a free live masterclass where I'll be showing you how to build and scale seven-figure brands using the retention method.

The first pillar is how to select repeat-purchase products in high-performing niches.

The second pillar is how to build your brand for longevity.

The third pillar is how to scale your brand with an organic and paid hybrid.

This is how my students are getting returning-customer rates above thirty percent.
